Why have others joined the society?

Some members have just recently become residents of the county, while others have family ties that go back to the county's establishment. Many others join from afar, having discovered that Harrison County was once home to their ancestors, aunts, uncles, or cousins. All would like to learn more about family and local history, and of efforts to preserve and document that history. Libraries and other historical societies are members, too, helping to preserve and to pass on the word of the "goings-on" of the Harrison County Historical Society.
